

Supermicro Announces Filing of First Quarter Fiscal Year 2020 Quarterly Report, Bringing the Company Current with All SEC Filings, and Reactivation of its Application for NASDAQ Relisting

December 23, 2019

SAN JOSE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Dec. 23, 2019-- Super Micro Computer, Inc. (SMCI) (the "Company"), a global leader in high-performance, high-efficiency server, storage technology and green computing, today announced it has filed its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for first quarter of its fiscal year 2020. As a result of the filing, the Company is now current in its annual and quarterly Exchange Act reporting obligations. These filings reflect the extensive and continuous enhancement of the Company's corporate governance and internal controls over financial reporting. These efforts include appointing a slate of new leadership over the past two-plus years.

The filing on December 20, 2019 consisted of the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2019, which was the first quarter of its fiscal year 2020.

Reactivation of Application to be Relisted on NASDAQ

The Company also announced that it had reactivated its pending application with NASDAQ for the relisting of the Company's common stock on The Nasdaq Global Select Market. This application was originally filed in August 2019 while the Company worked to complete its Exchange Act filings. The Company has now requested NASDAQ to relist its common stock as soon as possible, but does not know when NASDAQ will act on the Company's application.
