PART III — NARRATIVE

Super Micro Computer, Inc. (the "Company") is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for fiscal year ended June 30, 2018 (the "2018 Form 10-K") in a timely manner without unreasonable effort or expense. As previously announced, the Company has been unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2017 (the "2017 Form 10-K"), Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2017 ("Q1 10-Q"), Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended December 31, 2017 ("Q2 10-Q") and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2018 ("Q3 10-Q") (the 2017 Form 10-K, Q1 10-Q, Q2 10-Q, Q3 10-Q and the 2018 Form 10-K being collectively referred to herein as the "Delinquent Reports"). The Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors has completed the previously disclosed investigation. The Company is currently in the process of preparing its financial statements in light of the results of the Audit Committee investigation and other ongoing testing. A significant number of transactions remain to be reviewed.

The delay primarily relates to the magnitude of work that the Company still must perform in order to review the Company's accounting judgments, estimates and records for transactions that occurred during fiscal years 2015 through 2017, as well as the Company's assessment and conclusions on the effectiveness of its internal control over financial reporting during such periods, so that it can complete the financial statements for the 2017 Form 10-K and subsequently complete the other delinquent reports. Although the Company has made substantial progress in these matters and committed extraordinary resources and personnel toward the effort, the amount of work is substantial and the additional testing required has taken longer than anticipated.

If answer is no, identify report(s).

Yes No

The Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2017, the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2017, the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended December 31, 2017 and the Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2018 have not yet been filed.

- (3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

On August 21, 2018, the Company issued a press release announcing certain preliminary financial results for the quarter ended June 30, 2018. A copy of the press release was furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on August 21, 2018. In the press release, the Company announced the following:

- The Company expects to report net sales for the quarter ended June 30, 2018 in the range of $986 million to $996 million.
- The Company expects to report GAAP gross margin for the quarter ended June 30, 2018 in the range of 12.8% to 13.0%.
- The Company expects to report GAAP fully diluted earnings per share in the range of $0.51 to $0.55.

As described in Part III of this report, the Company is in the process of preparing its financial statements to be included in its 2017 Form 10-K, which includes its fourth fiscal quarter of 2017. Accordingly, the Company is currently unable to make a reasonable estimate of any changes in its results of operations compared to the financial results for the corresponding quarter in the last fiscal year. The unaudited interim financial information presented above is preliminary and subject to change. The final financial results reported for this period may differ from the results reported in this Form 12b-25 as a result of the Audit Committee investigation and additional review and testing discussed in Part III above.

The statements included in this Form 12b-25 regarding our financial performance and results of operations, in each case as expected to be reported, and other statements that are not historical facts are "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Although we believe the expectations and forecasts reflected in our forward-looking statements are reasonable, we can give no assurance they will prove to have been correct. They can be affected by inaccurate assumptions or by known or unknown risks and uncertainties. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those indicated. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from expected results include the results and finalization of the Company's financial statements, audit and reviews, including the impact, if any, of the results of the Audit Committee investigation on the Company's financial statements and the impact of such investigation and delayed SEC report filings on the Company's business, together with those described under Risk Factors in our filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
